Dominga is a strong and determined woman, and she is not afraid to stand up for what she believes in. She is also a skilled fighter, and she is able to hold her own against the other pirates on the ship. As the novel progresses, Dominga learns more about the pirate world and she begins to find her place in it. She also learns more about herself and she begins to grow into the woman she was meant to be.

Captain Dom Treasure: Definitely Dominguita is a well-written and engaging novel. The characters are well-developed, and the plot is exciting. The novel is also well-researched, and it provides a glimpse into the pirate world of the 18th century. I highly recommend this novel to anyone interested in pirate history, adventure, or simply a good story.
