Anya has always felt like an outsider. She doesn't have any friends, and her family doesn't understand her. But everything changes when she discovers a hidden portal that leads to the Kingdom of Drakonia. Drakonia is a magical land where dragons roam free and magic is as common as the air we breathe. Anya quickly learns that she has a special gift: she can communicate with dragons. This gift makes her a target for the evil sorcerer, Maldred, who wants to use her power to conquer Drakonia.

Anya must team up with a brave knight, a wise old wizard, and a loyal dragon to stop Maldred and save Drakonia. Along the way, she will discover her true destiny and learn the meaning of true friendship.

Dragons In The Snow is a thrilling and heartwarming adventure that will appeal to readers of all ages. It is a story about courage, friendship, and the power of hope.
