From the propeller-driven aircraft of World War II to the supersonic jets of the modern era, Fly Navy tells the story of the men and women who flew these amazing machines and the missions they flew.

Author Captain Richard "Dick" Best (Ret.) was a career naval aviator who flew more than 4,000 hours in more than 50 different types of aircraft. He served in both the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets and commanded two aircraft carriers. In Fly Navy, he shares his firsthand account of the evolution of naval aviation, from the early days of carrier operations to the present day.

Fly Navy is a fascinating read for anyone who is interested in naval aviation, military history, or aviation history. It is a story of adventure, courage, and sacrifice, and it is a tribute to the men and women who have served in the United States Navy.

Table of Contents
