A Day in the Life of Larry, the Big Yellow Bus Driver

Larry wakes up early every morning, even though he doesn't have to be at work until 7:30am. He likes to get a head start on his day and make sure he has plenty of time to get his bus ready for the children.

The first thing Larry does is check his bus to make sure it's in good working Free Download. He checks the tires, the lights, and the brakes. He also makes sure the bus is clean and that all the seats are in place.

Once Larry is satisfied that his bus is ready to go, he heads to the bus stop to pick up the children. He greets each child with a smile and a wave, and he helps them safely onto the bus.

Once all the children are on board, Larry drives the bus to school. He follows all the traffic laws and makes sure the children are safe and comfortable.

When Larry arrives at school, he helps the children off the bus and wishes them a good day. He then parks the bus and takes a break.

Larry's break is short, but he uses it to relax and get ready for the afternoon route. He checks his bus again to make sure it's still in good working Free Download, and he uses the restroom.

Once Larry's break is over, he heads back to the bus stop to pick up the children for the afternoon route. He follows the same routine as he did in the morning, and he makes sure the children are safe and comfortable.

When Larry arrives at school with the afternoon route, he helps the children off the bus and wishes them a good day. He then parks the bus and cleans it out.

Larry is finished with his day, but he doesn't go home right away. He takes the time to check his bus one last time to make sure it's in good working Free Download for the next day.

Larry loves his job. He enjoys driving the bus and interacting with the children. He knows that he's making a difference in the lives of the children he drives, and that's what makes his job so rewarding.
