In 2016, Leicester City pulled off one of the most remarkable sporting achievements in history. Having narrowly avoided relegation the previous season, the Foxes defied all odds to win the Premier League title for the first time in their history.

The Inside Story Of England's Most Unlikely Champions is the gripping account of Leicester City's remarkable triumph. Written by award-winning journalist Matt Dickinson, the book tells the inside story of the club's rise from the depths of the Championship to the very summit of English football.

Dickinson has spent countless hours interviewing key figures from Leicester City's title-winning campaign, including manager Claudio Ranieri, captain Wes Morgan, and star striker Jamie Vardy. He has also pored over match footage and training sessions to provide a unique insight into the team's remarkable success.

The Inside Story Of England's Most Unlikely Champions is a must-read for any fan of football. It is a story of hope, belief, and achievement that will inspire you to never give up on your dreams.
