encounter stunning waterfalls. For seasoned hikers, the Mount Tomanivi trek on Viti Levu is a must-do.

Fiji's cuisine blends Fijian, Indian, and Pacific flavors to create a unique and delectable culinary experience. Must-try dishes include lovo (roasted meats and vegetables cooked in an underground oven), kokoda (raw fish marinated in citrus juice and coconut milk), and palusami (cooked taro leaves in coconut cream).

Transportation

Domestic Flights

Fiji Airways and Pacific Sun offer domestic flights between the main islands. This is the most efficient way to island-hop and visit multiple destinations.

Ferries

For a more leisurely and budget-friendly option, opt for ferries. These services connect the mainland to the Yasawa and Mamanuca Islands, as well as other popular destinations.

Rental Cars

Renting a car is recommended if you plan on exploring the larger islands, such as Viti Levu. Note that the roads can be quite narrow and winding.

Budgeting
